Stand up. Put your hands together. Make some noise. Kent State University is celebrating its 100th birthday! Let's face it, after a century of service, it deserves a great party! Join us this summer as Kent State University hosts the AABI Annual Meeting!

As an aviation professional, researcher or educator, this conference is an excellent opportunity to join the university-industry-international organization dialogue about issues of mutual concern. The conference program will include speakers and panels from industry, government and academia.

The Industry/Educator Forum will be held on Thursday, July 15th. The Forum has been a useful device for AABI to maintain alignment between the aviation industry and educator member institutions, ultimately serving the interests of graduates of those institutions. The formal cycle of summer presentation by industry members and winter responses from educators keeps all stakeholders engaged in this important exchange. The Forum during the Annual Meeting will focus on current important industry topics. Three such topics are currently under consideration: 1) preparation of students for careers in a NextGen aviation environment; 2) aviation law, responsibility, compliance and responsibility of the aviation professional; and 3) emergent new qualification standards for first officers in airline service.

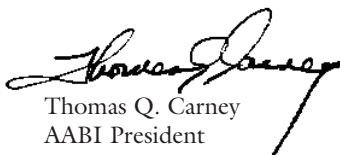

Breathtaking views await you at the Sheraton Suites Akron/Cuyahoga Falls. As you take in the calm, rippling sounds of the Cuyahoga's waters, it's hard to believe that you're just minutes away from some of Northeast Ohio's most popular business and leisure destinations. The all-suite hotel, overlooking the scenic Cuyahoga River gorge, features High Speed Internet Access in all guest quarters for emailing home, data ports and large workspaces, offers complimentary parking, an award-winning restaurant, a 24-hour Business Center, and over 23,000 square feet of conference center space. Take advantage of the indoor lap pool, whirlpool, and sauna, or work out on the exercise equipment – or enjoy complimentary access to the city Natatorium where you'll find a jogging track, racquetball, steam room, group fitness classes and a water slide.

Reservations should be communicated directly to the Hotel's Reservations Department at (330) 929-3000. In order to receive the preferential conference rates, telephone requests must identify your affiliation with the AABI Annual Meeting. Reservation requests received after June 28, 2010, at noon local time, will be accepted on a space available and a rate available basis. GUEST ROOM RATE: The following special group rate applies to AABI conference attendees: $125.00 per room/night for single, double or triple occupancy.
