Aviation Accreditation Board International
February 19, 2021

SUMMARY OF RECENT ACTION

The Aviation Accreditation Board International (AABI) is required to inform the public about its accreditation decisions. One of the ways AABI does this is to provide the public with information about the accreditation decision process, the nature and scope of AABI accreditation activity and the importance and value of accreditation. AABI also provides the public with detailed descriptions of its accreditation policies and procedures by publishing its Accreditation Criteria Manual (Form 201) and Policies & Procedures Manual (Form 225), along with all the AABI forms, on its website: <http://www.aabi.aero/forms.html> (Paragraphs 11[A] [1] and 12[D][3], 2019 CHEA Recognition Policy and Procedures).

Interim Report:

Delta State University

The Board action was to accept the institution's response to the remaining Recommendations, with no further reports required. The Board recognizes and commends the institution for the significant responses to the Recommendations and the resulting progress made, as cited in the July and December 2020 interim reports.
