

Any person who attends an AABI event grants permission to AABI, its employees and agents, to record his or her image, including but not limited to photographs, digital images, voices, sounds or video recordings, audio clips or accompanying written descriptions, and without notifying such person, to use his or her name and such images for any purpose of AABI, including advertisements for AABI and its programs.